GBS and OUR BROTHER IN BLUE

In early November 2016 after the birth of his baby girl, Michael Van Ness was sent to the ER with symptoms of facial paralysis, weakness, and numbness. He was later diagnosed with a rare autoimmune disease called Guillain- Barre Syndrome (GBS). GBS DOES NOT HAVE A CURE. Michael has worked for the Fair Lawn Police Department for eight years, but has recently become a part of PBA 67 in 2016 - BCPA Class #116. He has also been an active member of the Fair Lawn Rescue Squad since 2002. Michael has been physically unable to work since November. Michael has dedicated his time and efforts to protect the people in his community for over 15 years. Come out and spread awareness on this very slow healing disease for our brother in blue and his family.
